

Schoolage Fun

A learning center-based curriculum for schoolage children

Written by Stephanie Chase

Do you care for schoolage children before/after school or all day during the summer? Do you need a resource that provides fun, easy-to-do activities?

This resource is designed to make your time with schoolage children a huge success!

The curriculum is set up with twelve units of learning center, hands-on activities. An introduction provides the teacher with guidelines for successful fun. A Bible story and related activities are included with each unit.

Each unit is designed for a month of before/after school programming or a full day week during the summer.
